

House Resolution No.

Whereas, it is always a moment of great pride when the members of the Missouri House of Representatives have the opportunity to applaud the achievements of a young citizen who has excelled through commitment to the highest standards of excellence; and

Whereas, Chad Crawford, a junior at Raytown South High School, has distinguished himself by successfully maintaining a GPA of 3.5 or above throughout his years of secondary education; and

Whereas, Chad has put forth tireless effort during his high school years in an earnest endeavor to attain this lofty goal, while considerably enhancing the strength and vitality of his overall intellectual capacity; and

Whereas, Chad's phenomenal success in the important area of scholastic achievement has required a tremendous degree of desire to excel, a remarkable commitment to persevere, and an intense enthusiasm to comprehend a vast array of subject matter; and

Whereas, Chad has been extremely fortunate to receive the love, support, and encouragement of family, teachers, and friends, all of whom have continually instilled within him the importance of realizing his full potential; and

Whereas, students such as Chad Crawford represent the future of this great state and nation as leaders who will play an essential role in the challenge for continued progress during the twenty-first century:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending hearty congratulations and best wishes to Chad Crawford as he is honored for this impressive feat during the annual Raytown School District Board of Education Academic Evening which will be held on March 4, 2004, in the performing Arts Center at Raytown High School; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Chad Crawford.
